EXPERIENCE

Operation | Fedex, Bangkok 2022

2022

Intern Operation

My internship at FedEx provided hands-on experience in warehouse management, delivery driving, package sorting, and quality control. Working collaboratively with my team, I honed my skills in these key areas, contributing to FedEx's reputation for efficient and high-quality logistics services.

Freelance Web Developer | FastWork, Facebook

Oct 2023 - present

WordPress developer

Freelancer tasked with creating a landing page using WordPress. Responsibilities include gathering requirements from clients, designing the user interface, communicating requirements with the media team, handling edits, and project completion.

Front End Developer (react.js) | GROW UP TECH CO.,LTD.

Jan 2024 - present

Front-end developer | Web Designer

I'm employed full-time at a local Software House tech company in Nonthaburi. My role involves supporting web development services and driving business initiatives. I specialize in using React.js for frontend development, including API data retrieval, component creation, and functionality implementation. I also enhance UI design and usability with UX/UI skills. Additionally, I create mind maps to outline project structures and workflows, fostering team knowledge sharing.
